3 Ara (eldest son of Daniel & Nicholas). Served as private in Capt Nathaniel Webb's Co. 4th Batt. Connecticut forces commanded by Col. John Durkee, Revolutionary War. He enlisted March 1 1776 to serve 5 months, & was discharged Jan 1 1779. Also served as pte 1st Co., 5th Connecticut Regt, commanded by Lieut. Col. Sherman, Revolutionary War. His name first appears on the roll for March, 1782, & he was discharged June 22, 1782. Further records show that he served as a private in Capt. Nehemiah Rice's company, 8th Connecticut Regiment, Revolutionary War. He enlisted Aug. 16th, 1779 to serve six months, and was discharged Jan. 15th, 1780.

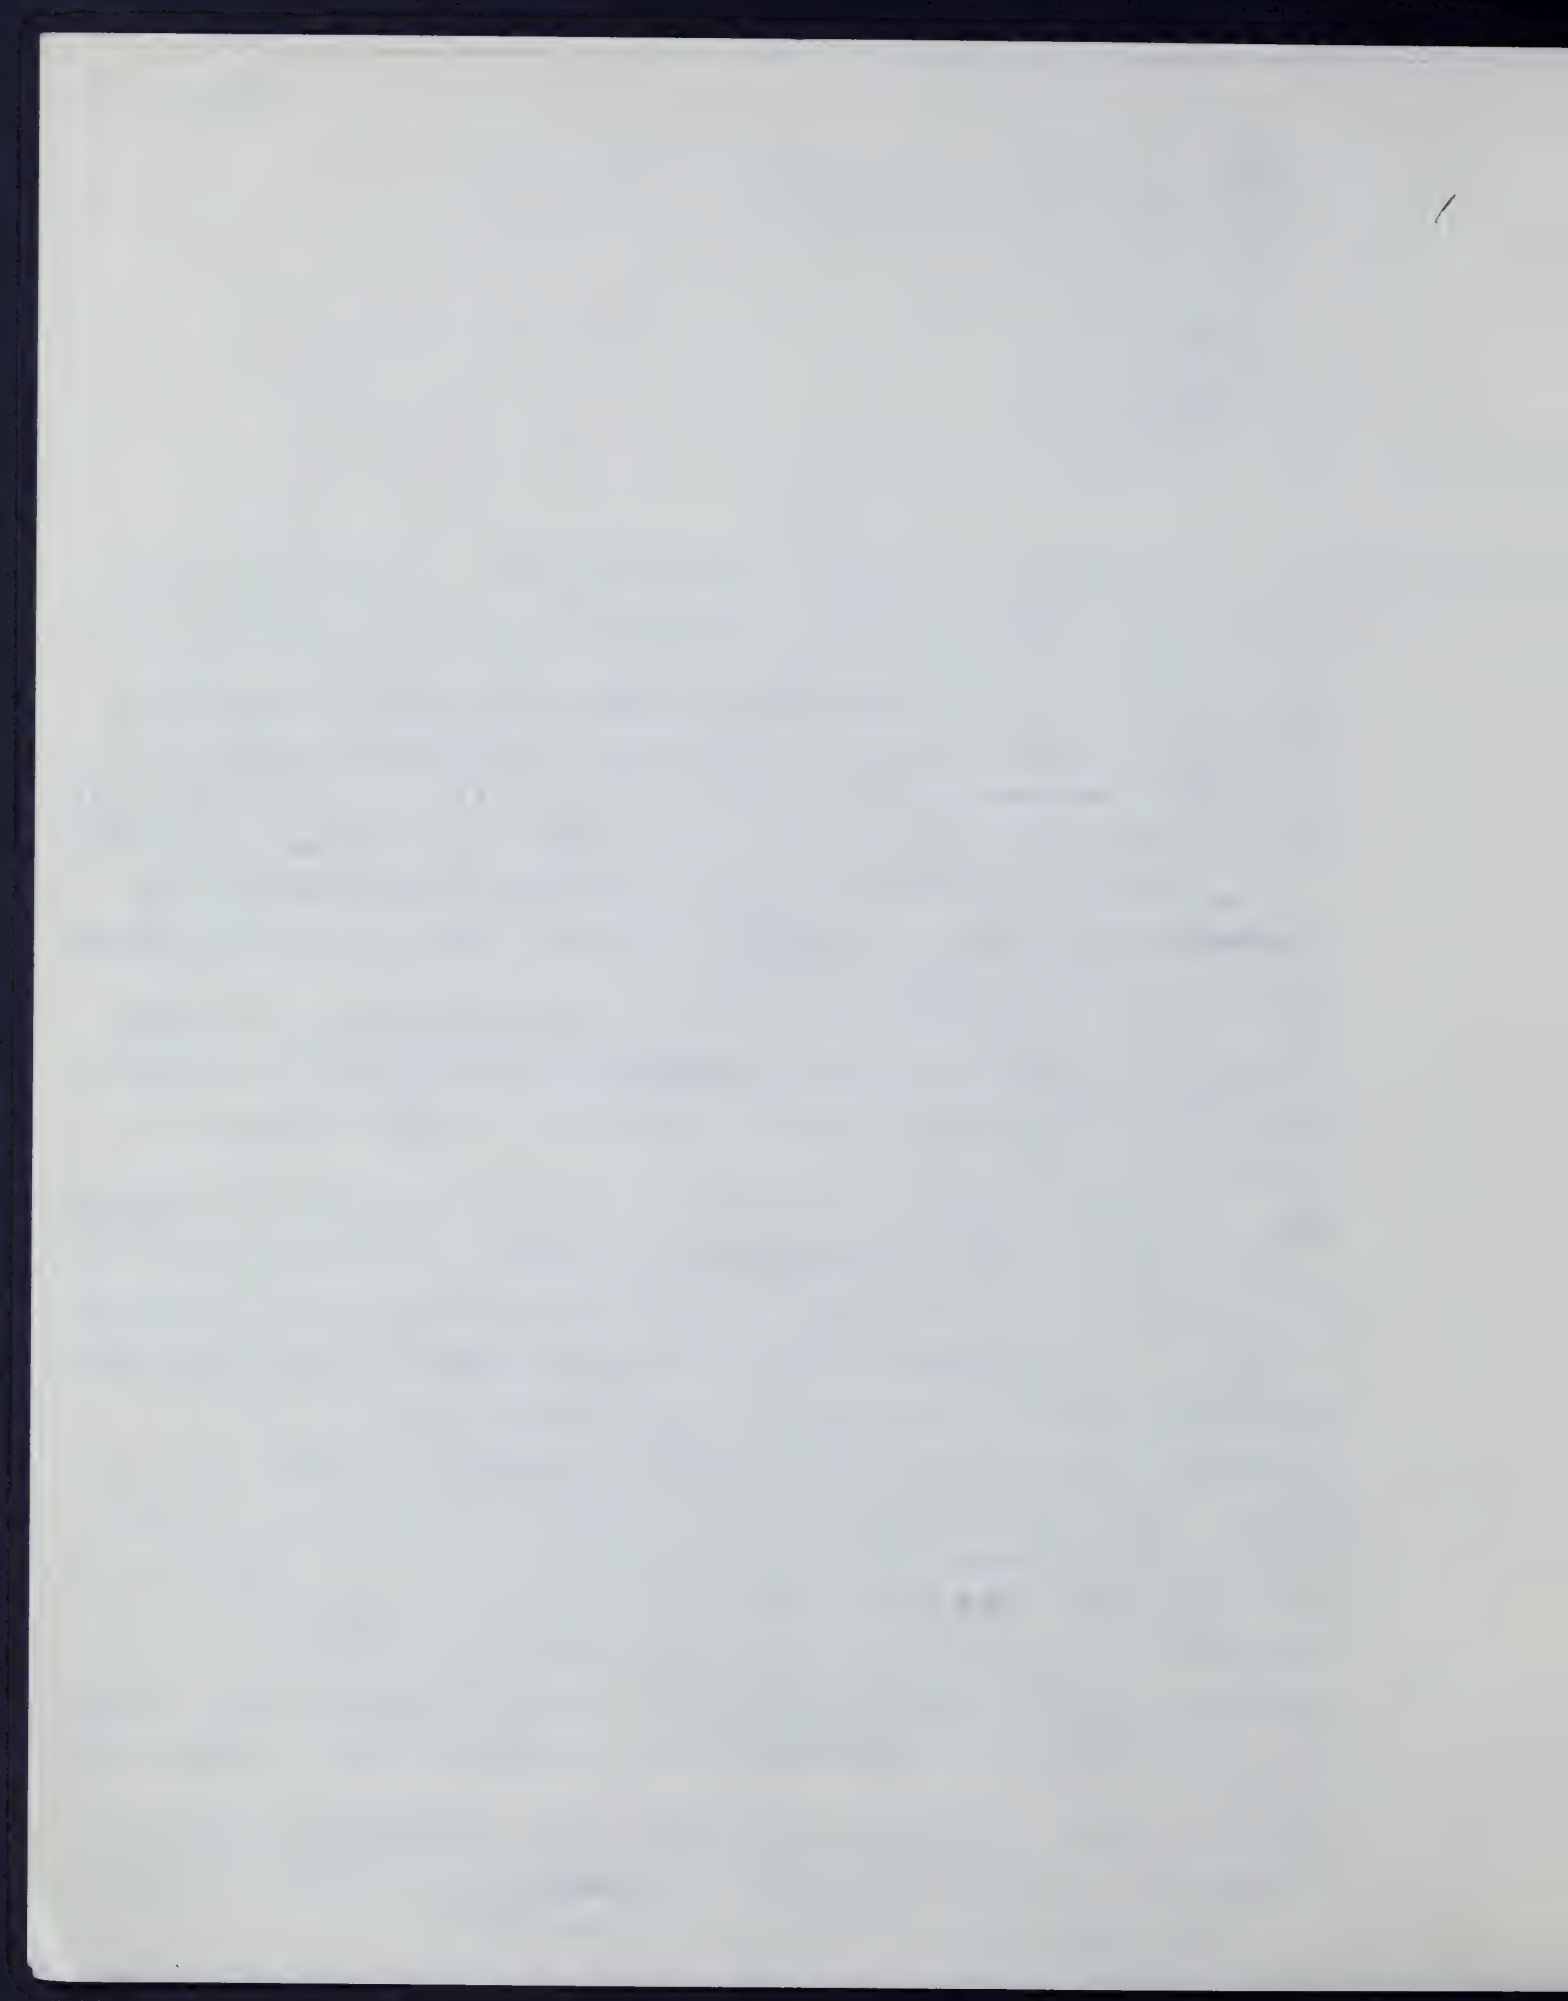

His son Ezra served as a private in Capt. Benjamin Durkee's Company at Matrosses, at Ft. Mifflin, Connecticut. He enlisted Aug. 12th 1782 (the day he was 17), to serve 12 months & was discharged Aug. 12th, 1783.

Ara was also a soldier in the French & Indian War. He first fought for the English & afterwards fought against them. We have reason to believe he was in the English army at Nova Scotia, where the French & Indians were expelled & where many of the English settled after the war. Ezra, his son, was born in Nova Scotia in 1765.

At the commencement of the Revolutionary War we find Ara at Ashford, Mass. Next we find his son Ezra at Preston, Conn., where his eldest son Dr. Ara Lee, was born in 1792. Then at Grafton, N.Y., where Ara died in 1824. Buried in the Brook burying ground in the northeast part of Grafton. Ezra died in 1834, & was buried in the Steward burying ground one-half mile east of Grafton Centre, N.Y. His grave, also that of his wife Deidamia, is marked with marked slabs.
